

Dacorum Local Food Initiative - Workshop Invitation

Saturday 25th February, 2012

10:00 to 16:00

Venue:

Ashridge Business School, HP4 1NS

(Between Little Gaddesden and Berkhamsted)

Places must be pre-booked.

To reserve a place contact:

Marion Baker

Tel: 01442 874732

Email: info@dacorumlocalfood.org.uk

You are invited to a one day workshop to discuss opportunities for enhancing the local food culture and economy of communities in and around Dacorum borough.

From growing, eating and enjoying it to celebrating it!

This workshop is for anyone who has an interest in working actively towards strengthening sustainable local food systems.

The workshop has been organised by the Dacorum Local Food Initiative which represents people from all aspects of local food. Growers, farmers, retailers, local council representatives and voluntary groups.

Entry to the workshop and a light lunch of homemade soup are free of charge but places must be pre-booked.

Events for the day will include:

- An update on projects started since last year's workshop. Including the Hemel Food Garden and the Dacorum food map.
- Talks on promoting local food through tourism in the Chiltern AONB and learning from new local food projects in Oxford.
- A professionally facilitated workshop to gather everyone's ideas on how to make local food "mainstream".
- A chance to network with like minded people.

The funding for this day has been provided by Herts County Council Locality Budget Funding. Ashridge Business School have kindly provided the venue free of charge.